

The skills and approach that we need from our Trustees

- A strong personal commitment to High Peak CVS and its aims, to believe in what we do and why it matters.
- To have a high level of personal credibility and integrity, to be someone we can rely on.
- Someone who possesses skills, knowledge and experience that are relevant to and can positively benefit the organisation. These can be in a wide range of areas as we are a diverse organisation.
- Excellent communication skills.
- A pragmatic approach to decision making with the flexibility to respond to changing circumstances.
- A commitment to voluntary sector infrastructure and the principles of good practice within those environments.
- The ability to think creatively in an innovative manner, particularly with regard to contractual opportunities.
- Strong and practical problem- solving skills.

Our people also:

- Share specialist expertise and/or knowledge of those aspects of the CVS's activities for which they have particular skills and experience.
- Suggest and recommend actions based upon their specialist expertise, experience and/or knowledge.
- Assist with the Identification of new initiatives that could be beneficial to the CVS's activities and/or financial outcomes.
- Support the decision making process of the Board.
